CSAAC is a private, non-profit agency, dedicated to serving individuals living with autism by helping them succeed in day-to-day activities and become active members of the community.

CSAAC operates 53 homes, 3 school sites, vocational and respite programs, and an early intervention program, among other services. We serve children and adults with autism or related developmental disabilities from age 2 through adulthood.

With rising demand for our services, CSAAC always has a need for caring, professional staff. We provide training for all our employees.
